

blueCustom Robot Double Place

Industrial robot with high performance crawler application head

Standalone system for manual placement, gluing with an industrial robot and subsequent pneumatic pressing of interior components. Extremely quick changeover of color coded mounting profiles with several tool magazines and appropriate programming.

In addition, the complete tool exchange can be performed by only one person in several minutes.

Virtually no connections, since the process release only occurs when all assembly forms are placed correctly.

fig. blueCustom Robot DP